

Museum & Gallery Tour 🎨 - Art, Culture & History in Mt. Pleasant

Discover the stories, artistry, and heritage that shape central Michigan. From nationally recognized Native American exhibits to university galleries and historic treasures, Mt. Pleasant offers a meaningful and memorable cultural experience.

9:00 AM – Ziibiwing Cultural Center

Begin your day at the Ziibiwing Cultural Center, a 32,000-square-foot museum owned and operated by the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe.

Explore immersive exhibits highlighting the history, culture, and contemporary life of the Anishinaabe people. Interactive displays, rare artifacts, and rotating exhibitions create a powerful and educational experience.

Optional: Arrange a guided tour for deeper insight.

11:30 AM – Coffee & Downtown Browsing

Enjoy a break at a locally owned coffee shop in historic downtown Mount Pleasant. Take time to explore boutiques and specialty shops before lunch.

12:30 PM – Lunch in Historic Downtown

Choose from a variety of locally owned restaurants offering casual fare or upscale dining options.

2:00 PM – Central Michigan University Art Gallery

Visit CMU's University Art Gallery to experience rotating exhibitions featuring regional, national, and international artists. The gallery showcases contemporary works across multiple mediums and offers an enriching university-level arts experience.

3:30 PM – Heritage Experience

Continue your afternoon with one of these cultural stops:

Option A: Museum of Cultural & Natural History at CMU

Explore exhibits highlighting Michigan's natural environment, archaeology, anthropology, and regional history.

Option B: One-Room Schoolhouse Visit

Step back in time with a visit to a preserved one-room schoolhouse and experience a glimpse of early Michigan education.

Option C: Loafer's Glory – Village of Yesteryear

Browse unique shops in a nostalgic village setting that celebrates Mount Pleasant's historic charm.

5:30 PM – Dinner & Evening Experience

End your day with dinner at one of Mount Pleasant's signature restaurants.

Extend the evening with:

- A CMU theatre or musical performance
 - A world-class concert at Soaring Eagle Casino
 - Seasonal festivals or downtown events
-
- 