Meet Mt. Pleasant

A Curated Indigenous Culture Tour in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan

Pre-arrangements must be made for this itinerary*

Mt. Pleasant is full of unexpected flavor. From chef-driven kitchens and craft brews to cultural cuisine and sweet treats, everything is within minutes — making it the perfect destination for a guided tasting experience.

Designed for motorcoach groups, corporate retreats, reunions, and girlfriend getaways, this tour blends local flavor with community connection.

Stop 1: Take a Guided Tour of the Ziibiwing Cultural Center

Your experience in Mt. Pleasant begins at the Ziibiwing Cultural Center, an award-winning museum that unveils the rich history and traditions of the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe and the Anishinaabe people. Attendees are invited to shop at the Ziibiwing Gift Shop following the tour. The gift shop includes Pendleton items, handmade jewelry, and other unique items that reflect Anishinaabe artistry.

Stop 2: Soaring Eagle Casino

Following the tour, test your luck with a slot tournament at the biggest gaming floor in Michigan, Soaring Eagle Casino. Groups can also get a tour of the casino.

Stop 3: Central Michigan University

Head to Central Michigan University and gain insight on the relationship and partnership between the university and the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe.

Options may include:

- Stop by the Bovee University Center and see the mural honoring Indigenous People
- Tour Central Michigan Athletics facilities & learn more about honoring the Chippewa name
- Hear from the Central Michigan University Office of Indigenous Affairs Office

Stop 4: Camille’s Prime

End your evening with dinner at Camille’s Prime to enjoy a sampling of traditional Native foods, such as Indian Tacos with Fry Bread and Corn Soup. Located in the same building as Mountain Town Station, Camille's Prime (named after the owner’s mother, Camille) is a 65-seat intimate restaurant featuring Certified Prime Grade Black Angus Steaks, Fresh Seafood and Upscale Comfort Food. With white table linens and candles on each table, it is deemed impressive to guests. motor coach friendly parking
