Meet Mt. Pleasant

Taste of Mount Pleasant 🍽 – A Curated Culinary & Craft Tasting Tour

Mt. Pleasant is full of unexpected flavor. From chef-driven kitchens and craft brews to cultural cuisine and sweet treats, everything is within minutes — making it the perfect destination for a guided tasting experience.

Designed for motorcoach groups, corporate retreats, reunions, and girlfriend getaways, this tour blends local flavor with community connection.

Stop 1: Cultural Tastes at Ziibiwing Cultural Center

Begin with a guided visit to the Ziibiwing Cultural Center, owned and operated by the Saginaw Chippewa Indian Tribe.

To end your evening, enjoy dinner at Camille's Prime to enjoy a sampling of traditional Native foods, such as Indian Tacos with Fry Bread and Corn Soup. while learning about the cultural significance of Indigenous culinary traditions. Located in the same building as Mountain Town Station, Camille's Prime (named after the owner's mother, Camille) is a 65-seat intimate restaurant featuring Certified Prime Grade Black Angus Steaks, Fresh Seafood and Upscale Comfort Food. With white table linens and candles on each table, it is deemed impressive to guests. Motor coach friendly parking

Stop 2: Craft Brewing at Summit Smokehouse

Take a behind-the-scenes brewery tour of how Mountain Town's famous beer is made.

Guests enjoy guided tasting flights of handcrafted beers while learning about the brewing process and the role craft beverages play in Michigan's culture.

Stop 3: Elevated Flavors at Wood Shop Social

Experience modern American cuisine at Wood Shop Social.

Groups can enjoy a curated small-plate tasting featuring chef-driven creations, seasonal ingredients, and signature cocktails or bourbon sampling.

Stop 4: Sweet Treats & Downtown Discoveries

Head into historic downtown Mount Pleasant for a sweet finale.

Options may include:

- Coffee or espresso flights
- Specialty pastries

Guests can stroll downtown between stops, enjoying boutiques and the charm of a walkable district.

Optional Add-Ons

Enhance the tasting tour with:

- Wine sampling or cocktail class
- Soaring Eagle Casino dining experience
- Seasonal farm market visit
- Chef demonstration or mixology workshop
- Late-night live music pairing